

FOREVER LOVED...

A piece of our heart lives in Heaven

Treasured SEASONS

*For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything under heaven
A time for sharing, a time for caring,
A time for loving, a time for giving;
A time for remembering,
a time for parting. You have made everything beautiful in its time. For everything you do remains forever.*

Acknowledgement

The family acknowledges the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended to them during the passing of their loved one. Please accept our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for all that you have done and for all who continue to do during this difficult time.
May GOD continue to shower you all with many blessings and may all that you’ve sown in the Love of Christ be rewarded with multiplication from Heaven.

Obituary

“The Clock of Life is wound but once,
when or where the hands will stop, no one knows but God”.

The clock of life wound down and the hands stopped on March 11, 2021 at Cape Fear Valley Medical Center, where ANNIE PRISCILLA MURPHY departed her life.

ANNIE was born August 28, 1939 to the late Sam and Willie Mae Jones of Fayetteville, North Carolina. She was united in matrimony to the late James Arthur Murphy, Sr. of Fayetteville, North Carolina. Her son, James Arthur Murphy, Jr., and her siblings John Archie Jones, Katie L. Currie, Martha Strange and Pearl Randall preceded her in death.

In her early years, Annie joined Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of the late R. L. Carr, where she was a faithful member of the Gospel Choir. She served many years as a member of the Senior Usher Board, a dedicated supporter of Vacation Bible School Ministry and was an active member of Missionary Group Esther until her demise.

ANNIE was employed with the City of Fayetteville Transit Authority for many years, and later retiring as a civil service employee with the Department of Social Services.

ANNIE was a family-oriented person who valued family. She along with her cousin/best friend Katie Bell and niece Linda established The Jones Family Bi-Annual Reunion for the descendants of Alexander and Corine Jones in August 1993, and it continues today. Keeping family uppermost in mind, she and several other family members then established an annual Thanksgiving Gathering for family and friends. For over 40 years she and Katie Bell planned and faithfully hosted an annual Christmas Dinner and gift exchange to keep the family connected.

Here to cherish her memories are a loving son, Andre Cornelius Murphy of Fayetteville, North Carolina; five grandchildren, Jamel Foster (Brandi) of Xenia, Ohio, Marquel Murphy and Brandon Pratt of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Sherrell Murphy of Temple Hills, Maryland and Raven Murphy of Waldolf, Maryland; seven great grandchildren, four nieces, three nephews and two special cousins, Ms. Katie J. Bell and Nathan Jones of Fayetteville, North Carolina, a host of relatives and friends.
