A FALLEN LIMB

*A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.*

Jimmie's Life...

*For everything there is a season,
a time for every activity under heaven.*

A time to be born and a time to die.

ECCLESIASTES 3:1-2

JIMMIE DANIEL CHAMBERS "RED" was born December 3, 1938 in Moore County, North Carolina to Lula Lee Chambers Roosevelt.

JIMMIE was educated in the Moore County Public School system. In his younger life he farmed along with his other sisters and brothers.

JIMMIE was a multi talented man. He was employed as long haul truck driver and brick yard worker. During his employment in Washington, DC he met the love of his life, Esther Juan Cox and raised a family of seven children. He was a great gospel singer in a group called "The Chilites" in Sanford. He was a deacon for many years at Power House of Prayer.

He worked for the city of Sanford where he retired. Afterwards, he and his devoted wife continued to minister to the community by spreading the Word of God to save souls.

JIMMIE was preceded in death by beloved wife, Esther son, Michael Eugene and sister, Sarah Lawan Chambers.

Survivors: two daughters, Linda Chambers Ricks (Willie), Tanya Chambers; three sons, Leonard Daniel Chambers (Charlotte), Charles Roosevelt Chambers (Francine) and Tommi Donell Chambers, twenty-two grands and eleven great grands.
