

POEM FOR MOM

We feel so sad when those we love are touched by death's dark hand, but it would ease our sorrow if we could but understand that death is a gateway, that all of us must pass through and on the other side of death. In a world that's bright and new our love one waits to welcome us, To that land free from all tears where joy becomes eternal and time is not counted by years.

Mrs. Carter's Life...

RS. DOROTHY BATY CARTER transitioned from this life to eternal rest on September 8, 2020 after a brief illness while convalescing at Hope Mills Alzheimer's Related Care in Hope Mills, North Carolina.

MRS. CARTER was the oldest child of ten (10) siblings born on October 7, 1924 to Mr. Samuel Baty (deceased) and Mrs. Fannie Baty (deceased) in Alexandria, Louisiana. Mrs. Carter was a 'preacher's kid' and attended church regularly under the tutelage of her parents. She received her sp iritual training at Annadale Baptist Church in Alexandria, Louisiana.

MRS. BATY married the love of her life, Mr. James D. Carter, Sr. and to this union was born three children, Earline (deceased) and Delores (deceased) and James, Jr.

The couple settled in Pennsylvania where Mrs. Carter worked in the Hospitality and Housekeeping Industry for nearly forty years.

MRS. CARTER leaves to cherish her memory one son, Mr. James D. Carter, Jr. (wife, Georgina) of Fayetteville, NC; three sisters, Mrs. Lois Conner of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Myrtle McCoy (husband, Johnny) of Detroit, Michigan and Mrs. Erlene Dickson of Bronx, New York; ten surviving grandchildren: Dwayne Freeman of Mary Esther, Florida, Stacey Monroe (husband, Guy) of Fayetteville, NC, Delores F. Cole (husband, Jerry) of Fayetteville, NC, Sheila F. Ruff (husband, Eddie) of Fayetteville, NC, Taice Cook of Spotsylvania, VA, Lionel Carter (wife, Karen) of Washington State, Audra Rouse (husband, Eli) of Atlanta, GA, James Parker of Selina, KS, Jessie Parker of CA and Louise O'Neill (husband, Michael) of Basingstoke, Hants, England. She also leaves to cherish her memory twenty great grandchildren and twelve great great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

MRS. CARTER had a long and close relationship with Mr. William (Bill) Pendleton (deceased) for nearly thirty years.
