

A FALLEN LIMB

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls,
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

"DON'T"

Don't spend too much time in mourning, tears are for the sad. He left to be with Jesus and this should make us glad. Don't waste your hours grieving, no need to feel distress. He was tired of life's frustration, and he had to get some rest. Don't vex yourself with questions, or try to reason why, life here has ended, and he had to say good-bye. Don't lose the love He has given us, fill it with your care, grow it with devotion, and spread it everywhere. Don't fret because his leaving came in such a way. We'll have another meeting, on God's Eternal Day.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation all the expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to us during this sad time. May God bless and keep each one of you. THE FAMILY
