

FINAL THOUGHTS

*A Light from our family is now gone.
A voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in the home which can never be filled.
We mourn the lost of one we would've loved to keep. But God who surely loved him best has Finally made him sleep. After a lifetime of his joy and love. And music to fill our ears. God leaves these wonderous memories to help us through our tears.*

The Obituary

WILLIE EDWARD TERRY affectionately known as “Pig” was born in Shannon, North Carolina on March 3rd, 1949 to Gladys Leak and Alexander Terry. He attended public schools in Shannon, NC and eventually graduating from E. E. Smith School (Golden Bulls) in Fayetteville, NC in 1969. After graduating high school he joined the United States Army and continued his military service in the National Guard, retiring with more than 20 years of service. His love of trucks led him to professionally driving long haul and some local routes. This love for trucks led him to establish his own transportation company and care transport company called Wet Trucking Company in November 2019. Willie was a kind hearted and selfless man who loved to help others. Always putting others needs before his own. This passion for helping others is what made him valued while working at Cunningham and Sons Mortuary functioning in many roles until his health no longer permitted him. Despite his illness he always had a smile on his face and seen things from the brighter side of life. Willie was a man with an amazing sense of humor, integrity and honor. He married Laura Chalmers Terry in March 12th, 2020.

He is preceded in death by his father, Alexander Terry and aunt, Doretha Miles.

He leaves to cherish his loving memories: wife; Laura Chalmers Terry; mother, Gladys Leak; two sisters, Antoinette Warren (Tyrone) and Frances Lathon; two brothers of Virginia; two stepsons, Darrren Monroe and Bernard Chalmers; granddaughter, Shamara Pittman; a host of nieces, nephews and many other family and friends

To My Husband in Heaven THE MOMENT YOU THAT YOU LEFT ME

I was supposed to spend the rest of my life with you and then I realized you spent the rest of your life with me. I smile because I know you loved me ‘til the day you went away and will keep loving me til the day we together again. My heart was split in two. One side was filled with short but memorable memories. The other side left with you. I often lay awake at night when the world has gone on with every- day life I walk down memory lane and begin to cry with tears stolling down my cheeks. Remembering you is so easy I do it everyday but missing you is a heartache that never will go away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain. You see, after this, life will go on but without you my life will never be the same.

LOVE YOU...ALWAYS YOUR BABY,

Laura Terry
