

A piece of our heart lives in Heaven

LIFE IS BUT A Stopping Place

*Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.*

*We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...*

Our destination is a place, far greater than we know.

*For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow, and when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*

Nannie's Life...

In my Father's house are many mansions: If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there may you be also.

JOHN 14:2-3

NANNIE MAE EVANS WILLIAMS, affectionately called Mae by family and close friends was born July 13, 1943 to the parents of Titus and Ida Mae Evans. She was married to the late Eugene Williams.

NANNIE attended Fayetteville City Schools and Fayetteville Technical Institute.

She had a compassionate spirit and was a care provider for her husband, mother, father, sister and aunt and anyone that needed care. She traveled faithfully with her husband Eugene during his military tour of duty.

NANNIE was employed with the United States Government Commissary Division for many years. She was a faithful member of the Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church. Sister Nannie was a faithful member of Echoes of Elliott Tent #780, United Order of Tents, Southern District #1, Fayetteville District.

NANNIE leaves to cherish her memories: son, Tony Whiteing of Baltimore, Maryland; daughter, Eugenia Williams of Fayetteville, NC; two sisters, Clara (Roland) McNeil and Ina Doris of Fayetteville, NC; one brother, Alonzo Evans of Lithonia, Georgia; grandchildren, Andreyia and Camari Williams, Yvette and Tony Whiteing, Jr. of Sanford, NC; five great grandchildren; sister-in-law, Dorothy (Sammy) Butler; brother-in-law, Sherwood Williams of Eastern Shore, Virginia; a loving host of nephews, nieces, cousins and other family members and friends.
