

FOREVER LOVED...

A piece of our heart lives in Heaven

LIFE IS BUT A Stopping Place

*Life is but a stopping place, a pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.*

*We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...*

Our destination is a place, far greater than we know.

*For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow, and when the journey finally ends, we'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace...*

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just prayed for us this day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we the thank you so much for every part.

THE FAMILY

Taijjani's Life...

TAIJJANI KHALI HARRIS was born to his beloved parents Conrad (Tawan) and Kimberly (Nicki) Harris on September 20, 2003 in San Diego, California September 1, 2006 the family moved back to Fayetteville, NC.

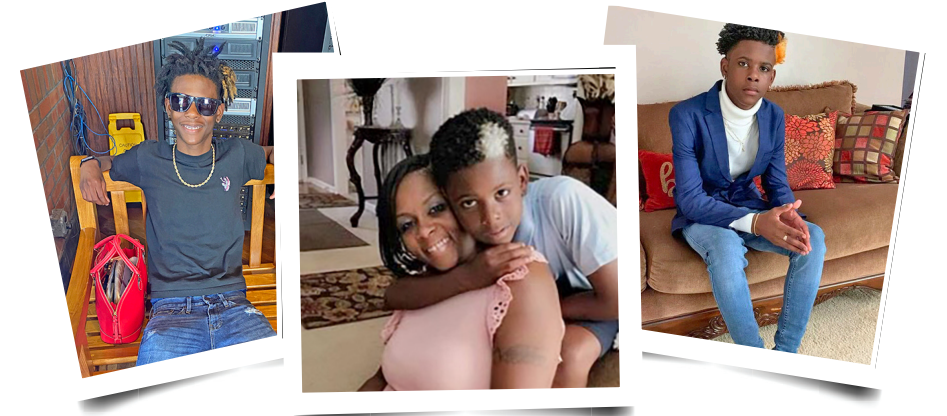

JANI, as he was affectionately known had a personality just like a magnet. He lived life to the fullest and never met a stranger. He was adored by many. Jani was well known amongst all the teachers in his school, family, friends, and even in his neighborhood to be a respectable young man that spread happiness wherever he went. Most importantly, Jani had a deep love for his family, and cherished the time they would spend together particular family dinners. Those who knew Jani, even for a short time lost a shining light in their lives. Although only 17 at the time of his death, Jani affected many people in his lifetime. He was not only a friend to his peers but also took on the role as mentor.

JANI is survived by his parents Conrad Harris (Fayetteville, NC), Kimberly (Nicki) Harris (Fayetteville, NC), One beautiful big sister that he affectionately called "sissy" and loved dearly Ms. Ty'Jona Harris (Fayetteville, NC); his grandmother, Shirley Vaughan (Fayetteville, NC) and his paternal grandparents, Conrad and Beatrice Harris (Fayetteville, NC). He also leaves a host of family and friends who will forever miss him.

JANI was preceded in death by his grandfather, Harfronze "Deablo" Vaughan and uncle, Tramell "Mell Man" Harris.

JANI was active in AAU sports growing up and attended Fayetteville State University as a young child. He furthered his education through the Cumberland County School system. He attended Elizabeth Cashwell Elementary where he was selected to be President of the Distinguished Gentleman's Club due to his strong leadership qualities. He went on to attend South View Middle School where he enjoyed playing basketball and football. He also excelled in wrestling in boxing. He truly mastered anything he set his mind to do. Jani attended South View High School where he was enrolled in the Early College Program. While attending South View he was a member of the SGA and HOSA groups and even was crowned South View Homecoming Prince his Junior Year. An honor that he took on with great humility. He truly had an entrepreneur spirit and even developed his own business where he created T-shirts. Which he called "Cash Cow Appeals".

He loved being around family and friends. Jani was the life of the party and loved to dance and have a good time.

A LIGHT IS FROM Our Household Gone

*A light is from our household gone
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
God gave us a wonderful son -
You were always there with a helping hand
Help us now to accept His plan.*

*We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by, we miss you more
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can take our "your place".
May the choirs of Angels receive you and may you have rest and peace everlasting.*

Amen.
