Obituary

Don't let your heart be troubled, trust in God

Sheryl V. Sinclair-Simmons, born on July 30, 1974 to Brenda J. Sinclair (Fayetteville, N.C.) and Roy Thomas (Birmingham, Alabama) in Myrtle Beach S.Carolina. She is survived in life by her husband Corey Simmons. Three sons, K'Juan Sinclair of Fayetteville, La'Juan (Amy) Sinclair, of Long S.C. J'Quan Sinclair. Sisters Mishell (Roy) Ready of Wilmington N.C. Gina Thomas of Mississippi. Veronica, Daijah and Desiha Thomas of Alabama. One Brothers Shaun L. Sinclair 5 grandchildren Arianna Sinclair, Elias Ballard, Naveah, Zendaya and Lajuan Sinclair jr. Loving Grandmother, Catherine Crawford, Nieces: Shikina Livingston of Wilmington N.C., Kadiedra Sinclair. Nephews Shaun Jr and Supreme Sinclair. Host of Aunts and Uncles and very special close and loving extended family (The Randalls).

Sheryl attended Paul Mitchell Cosmetology school in Fayetteville, and loved exercising her gift to enhance and beautify many.

Sheryl loved singing, her favorite song was Something about the name Jesus. She loved carikoake and would often challenge anyone to a sing off.

Although You're Gone

Although you're gone, we're not alone,
And never shall we be,
For the precious memories of the bond we shared
Will never depart from us.

Our love surpassed the ups and downs
And helped us along the way,
And that same love will give us strength
To manage this loss each day.

On our minds and in our hearts,
Grandma, you shall forever be,
For just as much as we am a part of you,
You are a part of us!

Love You Grandma
Your Grand-babies
