

THERE'S AN OPEN GATE

*There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each one must walk.
And there is a light we cannot see Where God claims His own.
Beyond that gate our loved one finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in just knowing
That our loving God knows best.*

Treasured SEASONS

*For everything there is an appointed season,
And a time for everything under heaven
A time for sharing, a time for caring,
A time for loving, a time for giving;
A time for remembering, a time for parting. You have made everything beautiful in its time. For everything you do remains forever.*

Willie (June's) Life...

In my Father's house are many mansions: If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there may you be also.

A Life Well Lived

*A life well lived is a precious gift
Of hope and strength and grace,
From someone who has made our world*

A brighter, better place

It's filled with moments, sweet and sad

With smiles and sometimes tears,

With friendships formed and good times shared

And laughter through the years.

A life well lived is a legacy

Of joy and pride and pleasure,

A living, lasting memory

Our grateful hearts

we'll treasure.
