“If Pam were here, she would say,”

*I'm living this life just to live again
 And with the Lord I know that I shall reign
 I shall not stray, with Him I'll stay
 He'll welcome His children home one day
 He'll welcome His children home one day*

*Like a thief in the night He shall return for me
 That's the day that He'll come and fly away
 You'll see, Jesus will welcome me home
 I shall see Him for myself
 I shall meet Him in the air
 (After the dead in Christ shall rise, we that are still alive)
 Jesus will welcome me home*

*He'll welcome me (He'll welcome me)
 He'll welcome me (He'll welcome me)
 Welcome, welcome*

*Welcome my good and faithful servant
 He'll welcome, yes, He'll welcome
 He'll welcome, yes, He'll welcome me
 He'll welcome, yes, He'll welcome me
 Jesus will welcome me Jesus will welcome me
 Jesus will welcome me home*

Pamela's Life...

Our beloved PAMELA DARLENE GAYLE while at home peacefully entered God's Kingdom in the early morning of August 6, 2022, after months of suffering failing health. Pam was born May 13, 1951, in Fayetteville, NC. She lived with her grandmother, Mary Ann Currie in the Rockfish community of Hoke County and received her education in the Hoke County school system. After graduating Hoke County High School, she moved to New York City where she obtained employment with ConEdison and worked for them until her retirement in 2008. Each year, until Covid 19, she would join ConEd retired employees for a week's reunion.

While living with her grandmother, Pam learned she needed a Savior and as a result, she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior. She joined St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church, Rockfish, NC where she was very active in all phases of church life until she left for New York. Upon arriving in New York, she immediately joined King Emmanuel Baptist Church and continued to be active in church life until she moved back to North Carolina after her retirement. Then, it was only a matter of a few weeks before she joined Lewis Chapel Missionary Baptist Church and was a faithful member attending Sunday School, Wednesday night services, and other activities when they occurred. Her most favorite service was with the SIG Mass Choir which she loved dearly. Even as her health began to deteriorate, she tried and longed to continue with the choir. She was not afraid nor ashamed to praise the Lord exuberantly. Also, Pam was a faithful member of Sojourner Truth United Order of Tents, always ready to give her all to its endeavors no matter the cost it was to her.

In addition to loving to sing, Pam loved to cook, a skill she learned while growing tip in the home of her grandmother. Yearly, she would have her family and friends over for a big meal on special days, always serving Red Velvet cake which was a specialty of hers.

Pam will be remembered for her love for family and friends whom she would strongly defend both verbally and physically if needed. She is now with her mother Dorothy Currie, her father Fred Bandy, her grandmother, Mary Ann Currie, her sisters, Brenda Green and Carolyn Bandy in a heavenly reunion. Pam is survived by many loving family members including her husband of 37 years Roy Gayle, two sons, Kiewan Gayle of New York and Jason Gayle of Seattle, Washington; a daughter, Lisa Titus of Fayetteville, NC; a brother, Sean Currie (Roxanne) of Raeford, NC; sisters, Annette Love of Durham, NC, Cynthia Bandy of Fayetteville, NC, Linda Davis (James) of Fayetteville, NC; 6 grandchildren; 1 great-grandchild; an aunt, Betsy Bailey and many, many other relatives, and friends.
