

When I'm Gone

*When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile
Just forget if you can that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile*

*Forget unkind words I have spoken
Remember some good I have done
Forget that I ever had a heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun*

*Forget that I have stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way
Remember I have fought
Some hard battles and won
Ere the close of day*

*Then forget to grieve for my going
I would not have you sad for a day
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay*

*And come in the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best*

Janet's Life...

JANET RUBY STONE (A.K.A. PEACHES), daughter of the late Juanita Burton, was born on December 3, 1956 in the District of Columbia. On Wednesday morning, November 1, 2023, she went to be with our Lord.

JANET attended McKinley High in Washington, D.C. and upon graduating, returned to Jenkinsville, S.C. to help care for her loving grandparents, Nathan and Janie Harper. Janet wanted to experience all that life had to offer, so she enlisted in the U.S. Army on February 1, 1981. She served as a topographical surveyor with tours at Fort Belvoir, V.A., Fort Shafter, H.I., Heidelberg, Germany, and Fort Bragg, N.C. During her time in service, she earned a Bachelor's degree in accounting. She received many commendations, awards, and accolades for her hard work and dedication during her 14 years of service.

After retiring from the Army as a Staff Sergeant on January 31, 1995, Janet began working for the Department of Veterans Affairs as a lead accountant while also caring for her ailing mother.

JANET was a very generous, caring, and loving person. She like to keep herself busy by offering help to neighbors, doing yard-work, cooking, and spending time with family. When she would take a break, you could find her watching one of her favorite Chinese historical dramas or a British murder mystery.

JANET is survived by three loving sisters, Sheryl L. Castle and husband Glenn of Alexandria, V.A., Wanda L. Jenkins of West Columbia, S.C., Beverly C. Taylor and husband LaVerne of Fayetteville, N.C.; two brothers, Carl Jenkins and wife Taryn of Aberdeen, M.D. and Reginald Jenkins of Laurel, M.D.; two uncles, Joseph and William Harper; one aunt, Betty Tate; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

FOREVER LOVED...
