Dolores' Life...

Dolores was born on May 7, 1935 to the late John and Evelyn Alston in Panama Rainbow City, Canal Zone.

She later married Lucious Lovett, Jr. May 4, 1961 whom was in the military and brought Dolores to the United States in 1963 where she began her life as a military wife with her family then settled and resided in the Foxfire subdivision. Dolores became employed and worked for Affes on Fort Bragg and the flightline cafeteria while attending Ruthledge College and later with extended education at Sandhill College. She retired in 1997 from those services. Her favorite thing to do after retirement was play bingo and take care of her family.

DOLORES was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. She has always been the person to look up to.

DOLORES gave birth to seven children and survived by four: Lavern Lovett of the home, Fayetteville, NC, Hector Lovett of Fayetteville, NC, Raymond Lovett of Conyers, GA, Keisha Lovett -Taylor of Fayetteville, NC, they will continue to live out her legacy. Her tribe extended to a host of grandchildren and great grands whom she raised.

DOLORES has been embraced with love and wisdom from her last sister, Pat Blaney. They were the last two of the seven children.

The Twenty Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear
no evil; for thou art with me, thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest
my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*
